AND

Senior Advocates and Members of the Bar.

I, on my behalf and on behalf of Bar Council of Delhi, extend heartfelt condolences on the sad demise of Shri O.P. Malhotra, Sr. Advocate.

It is indeed a great loss to the Bar and the entire legal fraternity. Late Shri O.P. Malhotra had been an active member of the Bar and always stood with the fraternity for the interest of the Bar and its members.

The sad demise of Shri O.P. Malhotra, Sr. Advocate is a great loss to the legal fraternity.

In 1961, he started practicing in Delhi, at the Supreme Court, in the chambers of Mr. M.C. Setalvad, the First Attorney General of India. He was involved in several landmark cases in industrial law, corporate law, and constitutional law in the Supreme Court, as well as several High Courts. Hon'ble Mr. Justice D.A. Desai (Judge, Supreme Court of India) and others eminent lawyers of India appreciated the work done by Late Sh. O.P. Malhotra, Senior Advocate.

Late Sh. O.P. Malhotra was designated as a Senior Advocate by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as well as Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in 1969 and he was also a Senior Central Government Council.

During his lifetime, he wrote "The Law of Industrial Disputes, which is currently running in its sixth edition.

In 2002, the first edition "The Law and Practice of Arbitration and Conciliation, a commentary on the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 was published.

He was also appointed as an arbitrator in various disputes.

He is survived by three daughters (out of whom 2 are Advocates) and One son, who is also an Advocate. Four of his grandchildren are also advocates.

The whole legal fraternity will miss this eminent lawyer, but will ever remain thankful to the immense contributions made by him to the legal fraternity.

We pray to the almighty that his soul may rest in peace by reading the pious Shlokes of Bhagwat Gita: (पायस)
