3. Other remarks

Sh.Gopal Krishan Arora, father of my wife Mrs.Deepti Kathpalia, Advocate passed away intestate on 19th January, 2011 leaving behind four legal representatives, namely his wife Smt.Shashi Arora and three daughters Smt.Arati Arora, Smt.Deepti Kathpalia (my wife) and Smt.Pooja Kathuria, all of whom have inherited the estate left behind by my father in law. Estate left behind by my father in law comprises of vast immovable as well as movable property, details whereof were being regularly submitted in my annual statements of assets during my tenure as judicial officer in the district judiciary. Till date the estate left behind by my father in law has not been completely partitioned between my wife, her sisters and their mother. It had been decided that first of all the entire estate including the business share of my father in law in an iconic brand in ayurvedic medicines shall be ascertained and if possible, partition of the complete estate shall be done not during the lifetime of my mother in law as a mark of respect to the sentiments of my father in law. The money/assets received periodically by my wife in the course of stepwise partition till date was being regularly intimated to the High Court during my tenure as a judicial officer of the district judiciary.
